

Customer Service Charter DITT

Who we are and what we do

Our vision: A $40 billion economy by 2030 through the growth of sustainable and competitive industries

The department supports industry development through globally competitive strategy, policy and promotion and delivers a regulatory framework that enables responsible growth, market access and stakeholder certainty.

The department fosters resilience and sustainability, to harness opportunities to attract visitors, trade and commerce while promoting the value and strengths of the Territory, its people and our region.

Our customer service principles

- Strive for continuous improvement: We will strive to continuously improve the service we provide to you through innovation and designing new and progressive ways of doing things.
- Communicate: We will ensure that there is easily accessible information on the service we provide to you and how we provide it, with information, resources and services that are up to date, accurate and accessible.
- Be accountable: We will be accountable and regularly measure our performance, seeking customer feedback to uphold the service standards we are committed to.
- Engagement: We will seek to engage and listen to our customers so everyone has the opportunity to participate and be heard.
- Solution focused: We are committed to understanding your needs and will endeavour to assist with helping you find solutions to your individual needs

Our standards and professionalism

Confidentiality

- We have systems in place to ensure that we protect your confidential information
- We understand that your ideas are your business advantage - and will not use our position to gain an advantage for ourselves or others - or cause a detriment to you
- We handle all your information in accordance with the Privacy Act, 1988 and the Information Act 2002.

We ask you to

- Treat staff and other customers with respect and behave in a courteous manner
- Provide accurate and complete information and documentation
- Take the time to understand your obligations and aim to fulfil them
- Provide us with honest, constructive feedback on our service
- Contact us if you believe we have made an error or acted inappropriately, and wish to make a complaint.

Feedback

We value feedback. This includes compliments, complaints, suggestions or any information about our program delivery, services or performance. This helps us understand what works well, how we can refine and improve our service as well as recognise the efforts of our staff.

If our service does not meet your expectations we would appreciate you providing us with the first opportunity to resolve it, clearly explaining your concerns and including any relevant documents that will assist us with this process.

We are committed to ensuring all complaints are taken seriously and we will handle all issues raised in a fair, confidential and responsive manner.

You can provide feedback to the department online via our feedback form or using the contact details available online.
