

Australian Government
Department of Industry,
Innovation and Science

Office of Northern
Australia

KATHERINE REGIONAL ROADSHOW 2017
Presented by NT Farmers and Office Northern Australia

Wednesday 12 July 2017 1PM TO 5PM
Katherine Research Station

Giving locals a voice in northern development

<http://ntfarmers.org.au/food-futures>

- Farming future in Katherine
- Successful farmers in Katherine
- Government's role in R&D and Water Planning
- Fracking and its possible impacts
- Forming a Katherine farmers group

Key Speakers include:

- Successful Katherine farmers – Maree Piccone, Manbulloo and Chris Howie, Douglas Daly
- NT Farmers Assoc. - President Simon Smith
- Tim Hill Aus Industry and Office Northern Australia
- QUINTIS update – Matt Barnes, Deputy General Manager Forestry Operations
- Surface water and furrow irrigation of crops – Mark Sullivan Flying Fox Station and Callen Thomson DPIR
- Research by DPIR – Ian Biggs
- Community Relations – Her Worship The Mayor, Fay Miller; Warren de Witt, Amateur Fishing and Kylie Gracey, NT Cattleman's Association
- Water Allocations – NT Water Resources and Prof Michal Douglas North Environment Research Hub
- Fracking and possible impacts – Dr Damien Barrett, CSIRO

Followed by drinks and a BBQ
RSVP NT Farmers info@ntfarmers.org.au
8983 3233 or 0437 092 551

Presented by

